

CAPITAL TEAM TO TAKE PART IN NATIONAL EVENT

Chief guest Col Kripal Singh with the new student leader and (right) school leaders take part in the swearing-in ceremony at DAV Public School, Unit-VIII, in Bhubaneswar, . Telegraph pictures

Pledge to strive for success

Swearing-in

The swearing-in-ceremony of DAV Public School, Unit-VIII, Bhubaneswar, for the elected school leader and assistant leaders from classes IX and X to nurture them to be future leaders was held recently. The chief guest, Col Kripal Singh, director, NCC Directorate, Odisha, encouraged and motivated the leaders to be dedicated and honest in their duty to maintain school discipline and render their services to take the school to the heights of success. The former school leader handed over the charges to the newly elected leaders. This was followed by the leader and his cabinet taking oath.

Quiz champs

A Mother's Public School, Bhubaneswar, team comprising Class X students Abhisek Panda and Sahil Khan, and Class XI student Utkal Anan

Mohapatra won the DAV Heritage Odisha Quiz 2017. The competition was conducted by the Regional Directorate, Odisha Zone 1, at DAV Public School, Chandrasekharpur.

Foundation day

The 29th foundation day of DAV Public School, Chandrasekharpur, was held on the school premises recently where additional chief secretary L.N. Gupta said value-based education should be the motto of the students' community. He said the present generation of students should not be de-motivated by banal distractions. A special yagna was held while 75 bottles of blood was collected at a blood donation camp on the occasion.

Football tourney

BJEM School, Bhubaneswar, clinched the trophy in the Sahodaya Inter School Football Tournament, 2017, hosted by

YOUNG metro

Sainik School, Bhubaneswar. The team beat their Vikash Residential School counterparts 2-0 in the final match to life the trophy at Sainik School ground. Earlier, the team stormed into the final by beating Times Gurukul, DAV Garage Chhak, DAV, Chandrasekharpur, and Sainik School in the league matches by huge margins.

Crosswords

Pranav Manie and Uday Sharma, Class XII students of SAI International School, won the city round of the CBSE Cryptic Crossword Contest, 2017, at SAI International School on Tuesday. The two-member team will take part in the grand finale in Delhi in Deember where they will compete for the National Crossword Champion Trophy. The contest, an inter-school, national-level contest that began in 2013, is the largest crossword solving championship in India for students from classes IX to XII.

Fancy dress

Happy Hours Play and Pre School, Bhubaneswar, organised a fancy dress competition for its students as a precursor to the Independence Day celebrations. Children dressed on the theme "Warriors of India" and walked the ramp. The tiny tots were dressed as legendary Indian personalities, including Rani Laxmi Bai, Bhagat Singh, Chhatrapati Shivaji and Mahatma Gandhi. The campus resonated with enthusiasm as the toddlers brought the stage alive with their performances.